CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee # 4

CALL TO WORSHIP & INVOCATION
Please rise as you are able in body or spirit to join me in the call to worship followed by our invocational prayer,
 The earth has its kings, but God is ruler of all.

- All: Praise God above all, the giver of life!
 The mountains may tremble, the oceans may roar, but God's presence is more powerful than the earth itself.
- All: Praise God above all, the giver of life!
 Come into God's presence, for God is among us now. O God, show us your glory; we seek your ways.
- All: Praise God above all, the giver of life!
 Come to the Rock, the God of life, for God is present now.
- All: Praise God above all, the giver of life!

Let us pray,

- All: Loving, living God,
 be among us now. Show us your ways. Guide our steps. Live in us, that we may be people of steadfast hope and powerful giving. Help us hear your words, challenging us to give you all the things that are yours. Help us remember that all we are and all we have are gifts from you, gifts to be shared in service and love.
 Holy One among us, help us be a holy people who receive your word with joy and live your message with love.
 Amen.

(Children and youth are invited to go with the children and youth leaders.)

SCRIPTURE "Exodus 33: 12-23"

Our scripture reading comes from the thirty third chapter of Exodus beginning with verse twelve and ending with verse twenty three. I will be reading from the Common English Bible:

"Moses said to the LORD, "Look, you've been telling me, 'Lead these people forward.' But you haven't told me whom you will send with me. Yet you've assured me, 'I know you by name and think highly of you.' Now if you do think highly of me, show me your ways so that I may know you and so that you may really approve of me. Remember too that this nation is your people."

The LORD replied, "I'll go myself, and I'll help you." Moses replied, "If you won't go yourself, don't make us leave here. Because how will anyone know that we have your special approval, both I and your people, unless you go with us? Only that distinguishes us, me and your people, from every other people on the earth." The LORD said to Moses, "I'll do exactly what you've asked because you have my special approval, and I know you by name." Moses said, "Please show me your glorious presence." The LORD said, "I'll make all my goodness pass in front of you, and I'll proclaim before you the name, 'The LORD.' I will be kind to whomever I wish to be kind, and I will have compassion to whomever I wish to be compassionate. But," the LORD said, "you can't see my face because no one can see me and live." The LORD said, "Here is a place near me where you will stand beside the rock. As my glorious presence passes by, I'll set you in a gap in the rock, and I'll cover you with my hand until I've passed by. Then I'll take away my hand, and you will see my back, but my face won't be visible."

Thus ends the reading of the word,

All: Thanks be to God!

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Loving God,
you the creator of all things; you are enthroned upon the cherubim;
and it is to you that we pray and make known the intentions of our hearts.

In the days of old, Moses and Aaron were among your priests, and Samuel among those who call upon your Name, O Lord. We pray for the Church of today, for it's leaders, and all your people.

All: Show us your glory, Lord.

LORD, you are great in Zion; you are high above all peoples; we pray for the nations of the earth, that there may be justice and peace.

All: Show us your glory, Lord.

O mighty God, lover of justice, you have established equity and righteousness; we pray for our nation, and for all who dwell within these borders.

All: Show us your glory, Lord.

The heavens and the earth proclaim your greatness, O God, and fall down before your footstool; we pray for the hungry, the thirsty, the downtrodden, and the fearful. And we pray for those who are sick or in distress of any kind, especially for all those who we have lifted up today with our voices and for those who we hold in our hearts. Give them your blessing.

All: Show us your glory, Lord.

We pray for those who celebrate this week, for the blessings that have been given, for the kindness that have been shown, for the love that has been felt.

All: Show us your glory, Lord.

You are the God of both the living, and the God of those who have gone before us. We pray for those who have died, that they may for all eternity worship you upon your holy hill.

Show us your glory, Lord.

God who's love astounds us, you answered our forebears indeed; you are a God who forgave them, for you are the Holy One. Hear the prayers of your people today, and forgive us our trespasses we as forgive others.

All: Amen.
